ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

The contracts for railroads for Fort Ethan Allen for the coming month call for about 30,000 pounds of potatoes, 5,000 pounds of onions, and 500 pounds of butter.

Word has been received that the body of the Rev. E. P. Hooker, who was pastor of the Congregational church in Middlebury from 1870 to 1881, will be brought there from Marshfield, Mass., where he had lived for the past few years.

Mary Howe is engaged to sing in the church at the parish house of Trinity church next Monday evening. This song recital is the first of the regular series of entertainments given by Mrs. W. S. Webb to the parish of Trinity church.

The United States authorities have taken up the matter of the counterfeiting of nickels in St. Albans and an investigation is under way. So far as can be learned the only place in which the nickels have been passed is in various slot machines at the city.

Lieut. Gov. C. H. Stearns and H. C. Parker of Johnson, his partner, have purchased of the John Schofield estate 4,200 acres of timber land in Hyde Park and Eden together with two saw mills and a hard wood dressing mill, the sale having been consummated while Mr. Stearns was home during the Thanksgiving recess. This purchase makes Mr. Stearns one half owner in about 6,500 acres of timber land in Lamoille county.

H. R. Platt, the Chicago attorney for Joseph Leiter, who was recently fired on from ambush at Benton, Ill., is a brother of Fred S. Platt of Poultney, inspector of finance of Vermont, and of the late Dr. W. N. Platt of Shoreham. Accompanied by William Browning, he was on his way from West Frankfort to Zeigler, and when about half-way three men stepped from behind White church and fired twenty-five shots at the two. Mr. Platt returned the fire, shooting at the flashes of the guns.

Suit for the recovery of $50 has been brought by F. K. Bengall, the music teacher and singer, against the Burlington festival chorus. The case is returnable before Justice of the Peace J. T. Stearns December 10. The suit grows out of the recent presentation of the comic opera, "The Chimes of Normandy," by the chorus. Mr. Bengall claims that he was promised pay for taking one of the solo parts and that after the production all he received was a vote of thanks. The officers and members of the chorus claim that no agreement was made to pay him anything.

E. L. Payne and son, who live in the extreme northern part of Pittsford, have in the last few years set out an extensive orchard of about 2,800 trees, most of which are of apple varieties. For about a month Mr. Payne has been greatly troubled by deer damaging his trees. In spite of lanterns and bon fires which he has around his orchard, every night to frighten the deer off, they have come in and eaten the young branches and stripped the bark entirely off the apple trees. Thus far about 100 trees have been killed. Mr. Payne has sent a petition to the General Assembly asking them to pass a law so he can be reimbursed for all damage done.

CLAIM $500 REWARD.

Chief-of-Police Hall and Former State's Attorney Schwenk Apply.

Brattleboro, Dec. 2.—The reward of $500 offered by the directors of the Windham County Savings Bank at New-fane, for the capture and conviction of the burglars who robbed the bank August 5 will be claimed by Chief-of-Police E. S. Hall and A. F. Schwenk, who was then state's attorney. Mr. Hall already has notified the directors that he claims the reward, and Mr. Schwenk has given notice that he will make a claim for it when the time comes.

J. F. McCarty, convicted of being one of the burglars, was caught by Chief Hall on the day of the burglary. Mr. Schwenk gave Chief Hall the information which led to McCarty's arrest. Harold Holbrook, now awaiting trial on the charge of robbing the bank, was arrested in Boston by Chief Hall's men. The papers for Holbrook's arrest were issued by State's Attorney Schwenk. Chief Hall took them to Boston, and passed a day or two looking for Holbrook. The information which led to Holbrook's arrest was given to Mr. Schwenk by McCarty.

JOHNSON PASTOR ACCEPTS CALL.

The Rev. E. G. French to Preach to Lyndonville Congregationalists.

Lyndonville, Dec. 2.—Both the Congregational church and society organizations here have voted unanimously to extend a call to the Rev. E. G. French of Johnson, to become the pastor of the church, and he has accepted the call. Mr. French has been pastor of the church at Johnson about ten years. He will come here January 1.

Death of Mrs. H. J. Potter.

Brattleboro, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Susan Gibson Potter, widow of the late Henry J. Potter, died at her home last evening after a long illness. She was born in Mendon in 1829. She was one of the oldest members of the Methodist church and was a leader of the Woman's Aid society for many years. She is survived by a son, H. J. Potter, Jr. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church.

A Brattleboro Professional Club.

Brattleboro, Dec. 2.—Arrangements are being made to reorganize the Brattleboro Professional club. About 40 professional men have signified their intention to join. C. H. Davenport, E. W. Gibson, and E. T. Mathison are arranging for the first meeting, December 21, when officers will be elected and a paper will be read.

North Hartland Station Burglarized.

White River Junction, Dec. 2.—The Central Vermont railway station at North Hartland was burglarized last night. A small sum in silver and pennies was abstracted.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasite germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE CHRISTMAS TABLE.

Suggestions for Ornamenting It with Seasonable Decorations

The table on Christmas should suggest in a special manner the day that nature usually gives out of doors, says Harper's Bazar. The same snow and ice, the same glitter and sparkle, the same Christmas greens ought to have place within as without. To carry out the idea drape the dining room with ground pine and holly and festoon the chandelier. Lay the table with the snowiest of dinner cloths and on it arrange a large central wreath of holly and if the table is round and large enough to bear it another wreath just inside the covers.

Within the smaller wreath place a small image of Santa Claus in a sleigh drawn by reindeer and fill the sleigh with small candy snowballs. If you do not find a white toy of the kind take what you can get and with a tube of oil paint or a can of enamel cover the whole. Then sprinkle the holly and the sleigh and driver with a quantity of diamond dust, such as you can buy for a trifle in a paint shop. If the Santa Claus is still wet with the paint the dust will stick all the better.

Walter Student For Class President.

It was recently announced at Cambridge, Mass., that at the election for the class officers of the sophomore class at Harvard W. H. Keeling, a sophomore from Sioux City, Ia., who is working his way through college by waiting on table at Randall's hall, had been elected president of the class, says the New York World. Keeling came to college a year ago an absolutely unknown man and by dint of hard work has raised himself to the first place in his class. He was a member of the sophomore debating team against 1906 last year and is the president of the Sophomore Debating club this year. Keeling was a member of the second football eleven this fall.

Otis Warren Dead.

Bennington, Dec. 2.—Otis Warren died at his home in the western part of the town last night. He was sixty-seven years old and was born in Housick, N. Y. He had been a resident here for thirty years. He had been in poor health many months. He served in the Civil War, and was several months in Libby and Andersonville prisons. He is survived by a wife and one daughter. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon.

The Acknowledged Leader in Poultry Foods.

F. H. Gillingham, proprietor of a large general store at Woodstock, Vt., makes special effort to cater to the farmers' trade. That he is successful, in one line at least, is apparent from the following letter. Read what he says about Poultry Food: "Page's Perfect Poultry Food" has taken the place of all other foods in this section. Where formerly we carried several, we now keep only one; this one being "Page's Perfect Poultry Food"—the acknowledged leader in Poultry Foods."
